

2009 Class Board Application

Position: Webmaster

The University of Pennsylvania Class of 2009 is seeking a webmaster who is a current sophomore. It is our hope to turn the website www.Penn09.com into a hub of the campus life for the Penn Class of 2009. The position of webmaster requires the excellent knowledge of website design and programming. The person who is selected will have the responsibility of designing and updating www.Penn09.com at least bi-weekly and will also have a seat on the 2009 Class Board; on top of commitments to the website, this position requires attending and actively participating in all Class Board meetings and events. If you are knowledgeable about web design and interested in class activities please fill out the application below and email it to web@penn09.com by no later than 5pm on Thursday, April 19th, 2007. Please save your file as "firstname.lastname" (i.e. Anthony.Maggio). All finalists will be notified by Monday, April 23, 2007 at the latest.

Name:

School / Intended Major:

Phone Number:

- 1) Please describe in detail your experience designing, creating, and maintaining websites. Include any specialized knowledge you might have (i.e. Flash, PHP, JAVA, AJAX, other programming languages, graphic design).
- 2) Have you designed any sites in the past? If so, please list them?
- 3) Which programs do you prefer to use for web design and graphic design? Do you have regular access to these programs?
- 4) We are looking for someone who will bring innovative ideas to improve the website's design and especially its features (i.e. photo albums, discussion board, etc.) What ideas of new features do you have to improve www.Penn09.com?
- 5) We receive many applicants for the Class Board. What qualifies /differentiates you from someone else applying for this position?
- 6) Aside from your web-related skills, why do you want to serve on the 2009 Class Board?
- 7) Why is school spirit and class unity important to you?
- 8) What do you do for fun at Penn?
- 9) List all other activities that you are involved in (i.e. sports, performing arts, fraternity / sorority)